ANOTHER SUICIDE.

Dr. Richardson's Scheme For Making the Great Leap.

His Ingenious Invention-The Queer Contrivance in Which He Will Take to the Water-His Calculations and the Possibilities of His Success-Another Crank Who is Evidently Bent on Mischief to Himself.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Dr. Richardson, a Canadian gentleman of means, scientific attainments and inventive mind, resident in Washington, has invented a machine or device, by the aid of which he proposes to go over Niagara Falls. He is enthusiastic and paoposes to accomplish the undertaking without personal injury to himself. In conversation with an American Press reporter the Doctor said: reporter the Doctor said:

"I have made up my mind and shall make the trial within a month. I returned from Niagara and am more than ever convinced that I can go over the catever convinced that I can go over the cat-aract unhurt. If you have ever been at the falls you will remember that about half a mile above Goat Island there is a prominent bluff on the Canadian side. It is about 150 feet high and is very nearly perpendicular. One day last week I ad-justed my apparatus and jumped off. My position in descending was like this (the Doctor took hold of his little boy, midway between his head and his heels, and lifted between his head and his heels, and lifted him from the ground by way of illustra-tion). I descended in a direct line, as steadily and at about the same speed as an ordinary hotel elevator moves. The water was only four feet deep at the base of the bluff, and I had no trouble in making a safe landing.

"I use a silken bag, of eliptical form, seven feet long and four feet through. This bag will retain gas like a balloon, and, in fact, it is a species of balloon. By experiment I have ascertained how many cubic feet of gas it takes to allow me to sink through the air at a moderate velocity, and I have made my baloon just large enough to serve the purpose. On the day I make the attempt I will inflate the bag with gas, confine it in a strong netting, which will be gathered as a balloon netting is gathered, at the ring. The bag will be attached to a heavy leather belt four inches wide, which will be fastened around my waist, large pieces of cork resting against either side, and held into place by the same belt. The ring by which the balloon will be fastened to me, or by which I will be fastened to the balloon, will be just over the base of the spine. When the connection is made I will be ready to make, the trial. Everything readiness, I will be rowed to a point in the river near Goat Island, where I will jump overboard and float toward the falls."

When I reach the edge of the rocks over which the waters fall, I will be moving as rapidly as the water, and as my body will be very much lighter it will shoot right out into the air, and will descend five or six yards beyond the wall of water, as you describe it. When I reach the water below, I will float down to the spot where Captain Webb jumped in the other day, and strike out for the Canadian shore.

"I have no wish to commit suicide, or take what I consider serious risks. I do not intend to make a public announcement of the date of my trial, but I will know in a day or two when it will be. I think it can be done, and I will demonstrate the practicability of my scheme before the setting of August's last sun."

That Dr. Richardson is in dead earnest there is litle doubt, and he is bent on trying what will appear to the great mass of people as a foolhardy experiment. His movements from now until the first of September will be watched with great interest.

A BOLD ROBBERY.

A Burglar Gets Away With $400 and a Watch.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 9.—An unknown person climed up on the awning supports in front of Fred Heinsius' saloon, 202 Elm street, and entered an open window in the second story into a room where Heinsius was asleep with his wife. He took a pair of pants and vest belong-ing to Heinsius, containing about $400 cash and a gold watch worth $75, and escaped without awakening anybody. The loss was not discovered until 9:30 in the morning, when Heinsius awoke. The pants and vest were afterward found in the backyard of Blackwell's dry goods store, on Fifth street, where they had evidently been thrown by the thieves. The money and watch were gone. The imprint of two bare feet on the window sill, made by the thief in climbing into the room, are the only traces he left.

A HORRIBLE VENGENCE.

The Brutal Conduct of a Tough Texas Gang.

WACO, TEX., Aug. 9.—A horrible cut-ting affray occurred near Martin Saturday evening between Hope Bennet, a former Deputy Sheriff, and three other negroes. The affair originated in a quarrel in town over a woman, the three latter swearing they would kill Bennet before Sunday Providing themselves with new razors the mounted their animals and followed Bo net, who was on his way home. Riding up behind him they made the onslaugh Foster severed the biceps of his left arm Bennet jumped from his horse, followe by Foster and Bradshaw, who renewe their work with their razors while Web held their horses. After gashing him up t their satisfaction, they left him for dead Bennett was discovered and taken to Mar tin for treatment, and now lies at the point of death. Webb and Foster have been at rested. Bradshaw is still at large. Ear net received twenty-five wour ds.

BOUNCING MISSIONARIES.

Summary Disposition of Two Canting Morman Tramps.

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 9.—Two seedy-looking, middle-aged men tramped into the town of Chester, Sunday, and registered at a hotel as "C. D. Robinson, Idaho Territory," and "Henry Miller, Utah Territory," The only baggage they carried was a grip-sack and an umbrella apiece. They were unobtrusive in their manner, but it was apparent from their conversabut it was apparent from their conversation that they were men of intelligence.

They did not indicate their mission in any way until that night after supper, when they distributed among the guests of the house a pamphlet entitled, "Doctrines of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints: Its Faith and Teachings. By Elder John Morgan." They stated that they were elders of the Mormon Church and that it was their desire to preach in town the pext night if they could get an town the next night if they could get an audience.

The news was soon spread on the streets that two Mormon preachers were in town, and considerable excitement prevailed for a time. The young men held a meeting, at which time a committee of three was appointed, who forthwith waited upon the Mormon apostles, informed them that the climate of Chester did not agree with "Latter-Day Saints," and intimated to them in unmistakable terms that if they did not make themselves scarce around those parts within twelve hours, they would be treated to a suit of tar and feathers.

Before retiring that night Elders Robinson and Miller settled their hotel bills, and in the gray dawn of the next morning they folded their gripsacks and umbrellas and silently stole away, counting the crossties on the railroad track in the direction of These worthies have been operating in North Carolina for the past year, during which time they have made many converts, who have been sent out to Utah. This, however, was their first attempt at pros-elytism in the Palmetto State. They have generally steered clear of towns, preaching their pernicious doctrines in the most benighted sections of the country, selecting the most ignorant and immoral classes for hearers, and conducting their meetings with great secrecy.

TARRED AND FEATHERED.

Etriking Testimonial of the Brift of Public Sentiment.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 9.—The village of Castleton, situated on the Hudson, about seven miles below this city, was on Saturday the scene of unusual excitement.
Over 100 residents took outraged law into their own hands, and tarred and feathered one Albert Voss. Voss, an educated German and a harklsome man, came to Castleton four years ago, and became a boarder in the house of Henry Hoffman, whom he had known in the old country. He obtained employment in the postal-card factory located at this point, while his host is a laborer in the ice-houses that line the

Mrs. Hoffman is a handsome blonde, aged about thirty years, of good figure and gay in disposition. The sober villagers thought there were improprieties between Voss and his handsome hostess soon after his advent to the household. Hoffman, n turally stolid, had no suspicion, or, having it, made no sign. Last week Voss induced Mrs. Hoffman to leave her husband and children, and the guil y couple took up their residence in a house directly opposite the deserted home. This excited the German villagers, and Thursday they visited the couple and warned Voss to leave town immediately. Voss and Mrs. Hoffman secretly returned to Hoffman's house, where Mrs. Hoffman secreted him in the garret and again took up her home with husband, who did not know that Voss was in the house.

Saturday night the outraged public proceeded to Hoffman's house, and, being de-nied admission, forced an entrance. Voss was found, was covered with lime discovered in his hiding place, and after being marched to the village line was partially stripped and covered with tar and feathers. He fought desperately and stabbed two of his tormentors, but was finally subdued. Threats of hanging were made and a rope was even procured, but cooler counsels prevailed, and the offender was marched out of town and warned of severe penalties in case he should return.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS. Their Reunion In Texas and Its Features.

McKinley, Tex., Aug. 9.—The second and last day of the Confederates reunion and last day of the Confederates reunion was even a greater display than the first. The attendance was greatly increased, numbering 50,000. The speech of Genera Lewis was generally condemned by the notables present, still it took with the crowd. Lewis was cheered to the echo while speaking, and the supposition is that the enthusiasm carried him beyond the bounds of discretion. The only thing out of the ordinary tion. The only thing out of the ordinary run was the speech of General Cable, who declared England and America can never have more than an unnatural friendship, while the American and purple clad are linked by hooks of steel. He hoped to live long enough to lead ex-confederates under the stars and stripes in a contest against England.

A FIVE-CENT CYCLONE.

For several years Prof. Douglas, of Ann Arbor university, has been manufacturing cyclones. He does it by suspending a large copper plate by silken conds. This plate is charged heavily with electricity, which hangs down like a bag, underneath, and is rendered visible by the use of arsenous acid gas, which gives it a green color. The formation is a miniature cyclone as perject as any started in the clouds. It is funnel shaped, and whirls around rapidly. Passing this plate over a table, the five-cent cyclone snatches up copper cents, pens, pith balls, and other ob-jects, and scatters them on all sides.

JERSEY'S SENSATION.

A Mother and Child Sacrificed to a Superstition.

The Shricks That Came at Midnight From the Tortured Victims—A Strange Colony of Russian Jews— Rumored Causes of the Tragedy— Death of the Little Child—An Extraordinary Affair.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 9.—No one of the horrors which occasionally crop out in the interior of New Jersey has been more wrapped in mystery than the cremation of a woman and her two children, at Estellville, six miles below May's Landing, the county seat of Atlantic county, and eighteen miles from this place. The facts became known at the railway station at May's Landing, thirty-six hours after the tragedy had occurred. It took place in a settlement of thirty-seven families of Russian Jews, who were colonized at Estellville a year ago by General Burbridge. From midnight Friday until Sunday morning the tortures of the mother and her daughter seem to have been hushed up among these people. A group of them ap-aeared at the depot with a wagon, in which lay the woman and the girl. Both were burned almost into unconsciousness, and it was developed that the purpose of their compatriots was to take them to a Philadelphia patriots was to take them to a Philadelphia hospital, although none of the party would or could speak English. It finally transpired that Friday midnight awful shricks had been heard from the small cabin occupied by the wife and children. Ivan Nilotowski, the husband, had either descrete his family or mandowed array in search of his family, or wandered away in search of work. The cabin was found in flames, the six-year-old boy burned to an armless, leg-less trunk, the mother rolling in agony in the sand, the eight-year-old daughter crisped to unconsciousness. The mother was a beautiful young Jewess of 28 years of age. Her long, black hair was singed over her shoulders, her eyes fixed in a mad delirium. She would say nothing of the cause of the fire. The neighbors cannot or will give no explanation. There are Russian Jews from this colony now begging through this vicinity. Their silence is, in some cases, more that of cunning than stupidity. One of them hints that the woman sacrificed herself, while another intimates that her neighbors were unfriendintimates that her neighbors were unfriendly. It seems that the people are many of them given over to degrading superstitions. Their belief in witches closely resembles the voudooism of the African blacks. Mrs. Nilotowski was driven to desperation by hunger and thirst. She did not make her wants known to the outside inhabitants of Estellville, many of whom are humane and intelligent people, that being a very old Jersey settlement. The last sacrifice to the demand of superstition, the phantom of hunger and desolation Nilotowski's serf ancestors has worshiped on the Russian Steppes, was the cremation of the wretched victims. Durng Saturday night the same terrible silence was preserved by the mother. Af-ter lying on the hard beach in the railway station for seven hours. Sun lay morning the little girl's tor ured life went out. The mother was removed to the house of a man named Smith Spence, where she lies at the point of death. All efforts to draw from her any solution of the shadow overhanging the midnight burning seem unavailing. This General Burbridge is said to be the one whose refusal of a Southerner's challenge in Washington about a year ago excited such favorable newspaper com-

A Schooner Ladeu With Ammunition and Guas.

RICHMOND, VA., Aug. 9.—Captain S. H. Dodd, of the schooner E. G. Irvin, arrived Saturday from New York, and was arrested on a charge of attempted violation of the neutrality law, the vessel being also seized. The grounds for the charge are that the vessel has on board, not to be unloaded here, 150 carbines, pistols, cartridge boxes and ammunition in large quantities, two cannon with wheels, axles, etc., all new. The information which led to the arrest of the captain and seizure of the vessel was given by one of the crew, who states that when the schooner was off Hog Island she lay to and signaled for two days for some other vessel, which failed to put in an appearance. The captain then brought the vessel to Richmond. The case will be investigated by the United States Commissioner, to which time Captain Dodd was bailed.

FARMER'S TERRIBLE DEATH A Farm Hand Gored to Death By a Furious Buil.

ATLANTIC HIGHLANDS, N. J., Aug. 9.— Ex-Sheriff Thompson, of Mommouth county, N. J., who resides near the Atlantic Highlands, is the owner of noted cattle stock, which he keeps on his farm, among them a Derby bull. This animal has for a long time been a source of great trouble to the farm hands. At times they were unable to manage the beast. Saturday Richard Canary, for many years in the employ of the ex-Sheriff, attempted to drive the bull into the stable. It turned upon him, and, after chasing Canary around the barnyard, caught him just as he reached the fence, the bull's horns entering his left leg below the calf, and ripping it open up to the hip. At the same time it hurled Canary into the air. Another workman ran up to help Canary, when the bull caught him and threw him over the fence. A third farm hand came to the rescue with a pitchfork, when the bull made for him, but he ran the pitchfork into him, causing the bull to turn and seek shelter in the stables. Canary was picked up and carried into the house, but died in great agony,

BIG CROPS.

Iowa's Wheat Yield the Biggest for

DES MOINES, IA., Aug. 9.—The wheat yield is the largest known in this section for years. It was well headed, stood heavy, and was free from rust. Some farmers near Norwalk, who have thrashed say that it will average 20 to 25 bushels to the acre. One field of Winter wheat will make 30 bushels to the acre without any doubt. The oat crop is also as good as has ever been known. The fear which for a long time was entertained by farmers as to corn has gradually been dispelled. After the early Summer rains the corn was small, and it was with difficulty that the rows could be distinguished from the weeds. Since that time the weeds have been cleared out, and now the corn is much higher than a man's head and has begun tasseling. The stalks are large and healthy, and many will bear two large ears. If the weather from now to maturity is favorable, it will make from 70 to 80 bushels to the acre. The above will apply to all parts of Iowa north of the Rock Island Road.

IS IT MURDER?

The Startling Story Told By a Small

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—The death of Sabastian Appel, aged fifty-one year, which occurred at his home on Lawrence street, was surrounded by such mysterious circumstances that the Coroner ordered an sircumstances that the Coroner ordered an autopsy, and if necessary will have an analysis of the stomach made. Appel was a widower with six children, the oldest of whom—Mary, aged twenty—acted as housekeeper for the family. A fourteen-year-old son testified before the Coroner that some months ago the whole family was taken sick after eating pie made by his sister and that on Saturday two younger sisters were sick at the same time that er sisters were sick at the same time that his father was. Appel suffered severe pains in his stomach and died eight hours after being taken ill. Neighbors stated that Appel and his daughter Mary did not get along well together and that he had several times ordered her to leave the

TERRIBLE ABUSE.

Extraordinary Cruelty to a Helpless Little Girl.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 8.—A pretty girl, now 15 years old, named Jennie Hurding, who was taken by Mrs. Lucy Pyer, a widow, who keeps a boarding house, from the Little Wanderer's Home from Boston about eight years ago, claimed that she has been persistently abused at times ever since. Her story is as follows: On Saturday last she was ordered to bring down the lamps. She thought she had brought them all, but it was found that she had left some of them, and Mrs. Pyer asked her why she had not brought them all. She replied that she had, when Mrs. Pyer struck her in she face, and taking a poker from the stove struck her with that, and then caught her by the hand and burned her arm in several places, one of the marks being five inches in length and half an inch wide. At one time she stripped her entirely naked and tied her hands behind her with a clothes-line and her feet with a rag to a rocking chair, and kept her there all night. On Saturday last, after the burning, Jennie left the house and walked up the railroad track to the house of a lady who brought her to the police station, where her story was told. She was kindly cared far. A warrant has been issued for Mr. Pyer's arrest, and she will be before the court.

GERMAN-MEXICAN TREATY.

What the Department of State Officials Have to Say.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9 .- Officials at the State Department deny any knowledge whatever of a sensational story to the effect that the German empire had entered into an offensive and defensive alliance with the Republic of Mexico; that if such a scheme was on foot that no information had been sent to the department by the United States Minister at the City of Mexico, and that Mr. Morgan was too vigilant to overlook such an important matter. If there had been any communication on the subject it had been addressed to Secretary Frelinghuysen personally, but the letters did not appear among the archives of the department. The Secretary would undoubtedly have telegraphed some instructions if such a story had any foundation, and until he was heard from it would be treated as idle gossip.

A Wife Mistaken for a Burglar.

DETROIT, MICH., Aug. 9.—At Grand Rapids, a conductor on the Grand Rapids & Inland Railway, having received a visit by burglars at his house on Monday night, was prepared for a second visit, and awaited them in the kitchen. His wife awakened by a noise on the street, arose and passed through the room. Her husband, mistaking her for a burglar, fired, the ball taking effect in her forehead and coming out near the right ear. She is alive, but unconscious, with slight hopes only of her recovery.

RUNNING BIRD HANGED.

Execution of a Prominent Cherokee Indian.

LITTLE Rock, August 9.—Running Bird, a Cherokee Indian, was hanged at Talequah, Cherokee Nation, for the murder of Running Water, another Indian, in Delaware District, Indian Nation, August 20, a year ago. Running Bird belonged to a reputable Indian family. He was intellient and courageous. He slew his victim, rton, in a moment of intense passion, aving been goaded to desperation by the taunts of his enemy. A bitter feeling had long existed between the men, and the fatal outcome of the feeling was more than once predicted. Chief Bushyhead was appealed to in behalf of Running Bird, but declined to interfere, and the condemned expiated his crime.

SOME STRANGE CRANKS

The Remarkable Habits of a Family Near Omaha.

Self-Entombed in a Lonely House-The Mystery of Who and What They Are-Their Method of Living -What Their Grocer and Doctor

OMAHA, Aug. 9.—For some time past there have been rumors of a family residing on one of the hills of South Omaha under remarkable circumstances, it being stated that they never left the house under any circumstances, and that they were cranky in many other respects. A reporter investigated the matter and found that not only were the reports true, but that case even wore than it had been re-

The family consists of the father and mother and seven children. They reside in a neat and ordinary looking cottage, which is somewhat isolated from its neighbors, being on a cross street as yet but sparsely built up. In this house the man and wife have lived alone for nearly ten years, and all their children have been born here. More than that, they have never been permitted to see the outside world at all, and neither parents nor children have ever stirred outside of the house except at night, when they occasionally walk out in the dark of the moon. They have dealt steadily for ten years with one grocer, who furnishes their supply of meat and fuel as well as of provisions, and it was from him that a pointer was obtained under promise of secrecy. He sends the supplies up in the evening, and they are taken in through a window in the rear of the house, so that he has never seen any of the family. The bill is paid regularly once a month, and there seems to be no lack of money to support the family, who never kick about any bills.

Another curious freak of this curious family is that they keep a coffin in the house for each member of the family, and order a new one as often as it is increased in number. These coffins are procured from some point in the East, and are all of the size for adults, so that they will be large enough whether the owner dies at an early age or at maturity. They are stored in the attic of the cottage, and are kept ready for use at all times.

The physician who has attended the family at necessary periods has done so regularly ever since they began this curious life in Omaha. He has never seen one of them, though he has ushered all the children into the world. He is as much mystified as any one, but as he always receives a fee of $25 in gold for each visit, however trifling the ailment, he is well satisfied to keep mum. The doors and windows of the residence are kept closed in the warmest weather, and to the neighbors and passers-by it seems to be a vacant

Who the parties are or what is meant by this living entombment is something known to no one in the city, and what secret cause exists for so unnsual a way of living is a question to be answered by speculation only, but it certainly is a heathenish act, which ought not to be allowed to exist in this enlightened era.

New York dispatches say there is no change in the telegraph war. There wa no cutting of wires since last report, and Western Union business is going on smoothly. The strikers are still confident of success, and exhibit no indication of weekening

It is now believed that Rev. Emil Karpowski who was reported to have decamped of Kensington, Ill., with several hundred dollars church funds, has been murdered. Railroad Aid Bonds. The Supreme Court of the United States has added another to the long list of decisions showing their determination to compel towns and counties to pay their honest debts, and not crawl out of them through some technical back door. The town of Amboy, Lee county, Ill., issued in 1872, bonds in payment of subscriptions voted by the town to the stock of the Chicago and Rock River Railroad Company. Subsequently some of the taxpayers obtained from the Circuit Court of Lee county an injunction restraining the levy and collection of taxes to pay principal and interest of said bonds. Certain of the bondholders then brought action in the United States Circuit Court against the town, and obtained judgments. The town clerk concealed himself to avoid the process of the court. and the County Clerk refused to compute and assess taxes to meet the judgment without the certificate of the town clerk, required by law. The bondholders then united in an application to the Circuit Court for a mandamus to the county Call and investigate at clerk to comply with their demands, and on the matter being carried by writ of error to the Supreme Court, that court held that all the directions of the various acts of Assembly as to certificates, &c., among the town and county officials was merely directory, and that the amount of debt having been ascertained by the judgment of the Circuit Court, it was enough, and, as these bondbolders in case of death from accident, and $15 JOHN B. POYNTZ, JR., were not affected by the injunction of the weekly indemnity in case of disability county court, the mandamus must be awarded, and the town officers must levy the tax as directed by the United States Circuit Court.-Exchange.

LITERARY TREASURE.

Alleged Discovery of a Very Ancient Version of the Book of Deuteronomy.

London Cable Letter. A Mr. Shapira, of Jerusalem, a book seller and dealer in antiquities, has just deposited in the British Museum fifteen slips of black sheepskin leather, on which are written, in characters similar to those on the celebrated Moabite stone, portions of the book of Deuteronomy differing materially from the received version. The date of the slips is the ninth century before Christ, or sixteen centu- A. ries older than any authentic manuscript of any part of the Old Testament. Mr. Shapira bought them from an Arab, and he asks for them $5,000,000 from the British Museum. If genuine, the interest and importance of the discovery cannot be overrated, and so far as the variations in the sacred text are concerned, there is promise of one of the greatest that scholars have entered upon. The decalogue furnishes a good example for comparison with the received version. I quote Shapira record:

The Home Guardian.

Mr. H. Baumgarten, of Cincinnati, O., is in town organising a division of the Home Guardian. The plan of this society is the same that has been so successfully operated in London since 1828.

There are no assessments, no lodge dues and no regalia or paraphernalia required to carry on the order. A member can insure for from $500 to $3,000. Besides, by a small quarterly deposit, secure weekly benefits, in case of sickness, of from $3 to $25. The plan should be examined by those desiring to connect themselves with an organization that for safety and security, has no superior. There are upwards of thirty divisions of the order in Kentucky.

AYER'S Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the

Rev. Father Wilds' EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows:

"78 E. 54th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

MESSRS, J. C. AYER & Co., Gentlemen:

Last winter I was troubled with a most uncom-Last winter I was troubled with a most uncom-fortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPA-RILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking from personal use informer years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SARSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good. publication may do good. Yours respectfully, Z. P. WILDS."

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

cleanses, enriches, and strengthens the blood, stimulates the action of the stomach and bowels, and thereby enables the system to resist and overcome the attacks of all Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, Rheumatism, Catarrh, General bebility, and all disorders resulting from poor or corrupted blood and a low state of the system.

PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists; price $1, six bottles for $5.

HAYTI.

JACAMEL, July 24.—The insurgents eaptured this town on the 23d of July. The attack began at 3 o'clock in the morning and in two hours the arsenal fell into their hands. The schooner Clifford of Lamdine, Me., Captain Bragdon, was moored close to the town during the fight. The bullets from the guns frequently passed over her. Two shots struck a pile of dunnage on the forward house. The Captain from the deck of his vessel could plainly see the fighting going on in the streets of the town.
